Biography

K L Campbell is a multi-media artist who derives daily inspiration from natural, industrial and political environments. Abstracted renditions of running water, Buddhist symbolism and a distinct interest in the diversity of humanity can be seen throughout her body of work.

Her works have been exhibited internationally and throughout the New York metropolitan area, and she has been commissioned by several private collectors in the Northeast.

Campbell studied Advanced Painting in Barcelona, Spain at L.L.O.T.J.A. through School of Visual Arts in New York City. She also studied figurative sculpture under renowned sculptor, Debra Flocco, and holds a BFA from St. Thomas Aquinas College in New York. Currently, she is President & Creative Director of Liqui-Site Designs Inc. [www.liqui-site.com] – a full-service creative firm. At present, she resides in Brooklyn, NY, with her partner.
